

Field Experiences/Service Learning

Elementary/Middle and Middle/Secondary majors participate in field experiences at public, private and parochial schools in the Milwaukee area. Marquette University's College of Education has established close, working relationships with several schools in the greater Milwaukee area. Educational Studies majors participate in one field experience, several service-learning experiences, and complete a senior internship experience. Placements are made at sites which correspond to and support students' second major and career interests.