

Digital Media, Minor

Chairperson: Amanda Keeler, Ph.D.

Whatever the medium, professionals in the field of digital media play major roles in shaping the way we view the world. The minor's liberal arts emphasis gives students the education to thrive in and adapt to this era of convergence and competition.

The curriculum allows students to create professional quality digital media for a range of arts, businesses, organizations and industries (profit/non-profit). They are thinkers who can apply their ethical, critical, analytical and technological skills to make innovative and creative digital media that makes a difference.
