

Attendance

Because absence from class prevents students from getting the full benefit of a course and because in many courses, students' involvement contributes to the learning process for all other students in the class, the college has adopted the University Attendance Policy (<https://bulletin.marquette.edu/policies/attendance/undergraduate/>) for all of its undergraduate courses.