Educational Studies, Minor

Students with an Educational Studies minor can pursue careers in informal learning environments (e.g., recreational programs, zoos, museums, ecology centers) as well as a wide range of non-profit organizations and foundations.

Students who intend to complete the Educational Studies minor through the Marquette University College of Education are strongly encouraged to meet with the assistant dean of advising and student services in the Office of Teacher Education as early as possible to avoid program delays.

Educational Studies Minor

Students interested in a minor in Educational Studies should consult the assistant dean for advising and student services in the College of Education. The Educational Studies minor requires 18 credit hours: Two courses (EDUC 1000 Educational Inquiry 1: Critical Perspectives on Education, EDUC 1001 Child and Adolescent Development and Learning) require participation in 20 hours of service-learning experiences, and one course (EDUC 4986 Community-Engaged Internship 1) requires a minimum of 120 hours in an internship experience. The three additional Educational Studies electives also require service learning.
