Les Aspin Programs

Washington, D.C., Internship Program
The Marquette University Les Aspin Center for Government offers students the opportunity to study in Washington, D.C. as part of their degree program. Students live and work on Capitol Hill, participate in internships with the House, Senate, other government agencies, private sector firms and non-profit organizations. Placements are available for students in all majors. Students receive hands-on training and develop important professional skills. All programs include academic coursework in addition to guest lectures, symposia and site visits. Programs are offered during each fall, spring and summer term. Cost of living stipends are normally provided for the fall and spring terms. For more information contact the Aspin Center's Washington D.C. office at 202-554-6140.

Milwaukee Internship Program
The Kleczka Internship Program, located on Marquette's Milwaukee campus, is a local initiative of the Aspin Center.
