Marquette University confers the degree of bachelor of science in business administration on those students who have satisfactorily completed one of the regularly prescribed curricula of the College of Business Administration. Students who successfully complete the Core Honors (https://bulletin.marquette.edu/undergrad/thehonorsprogram/) or Comprehensive Honors (https://bulletin.marquette.edu/undergrad/thehonorsprogram/) curriculum may earn a degree of honors bachelor of science in business administration or comprehensive honors bachelor of science in business administration, respectively.

There are many graduate program and accelerated degree program opportunities offered through the Marquette University Graduate School of Management. Details on these programs are contained in the Graduate School of Management Bulletin (https://bulletin.marquette.edu/schoolofmanagement/).