Majors and Minors Overview

Majors

The College of Education offers a major in Elementary/Middle Education (ELME), leading to certification for grades 1-8, a major in Middle/Secondary Education (MISE), leading to certification for grades 6-12, and a non-certification major in Educational Studies (EDST).

*Pending DPI approval, licensure will be changing to grades 4K through 9 (ELME) and 4 through 12 (MISE).

Minors

Students pursuing a major in MISE along with a content major in Economics, History, Political Science, or Psychology may also pursue a minor in Broad Field Social Studies for additional licensure. In addition, the college also offers a minor in Educational Studies, which is open to non-Education majors and a minor in English as a Second Language, which is open to both Education and non-Education majors.
