Degrees Offered

Marquette University confers the degree of bachelor of arts on those students who have satisfactorily completed one or more of the following majors: advertising, communication studies, corporate communication, digital media, journalism, media studies, public relations and theatre arts. Students who successfully complete the Comprehensive Honors (http://bulletin.marquette.edu/undergrad/thehonorsprogram) curriculum may earn a degree of honors bachelor of arts.